Further to the right are icons for search, video camera, grid, message, and notifications. A blue circular profile icon with a white letter 'I' is at the far right.

I have warned my wife that the very day I will hear her make mention of any prophets or pastors name that will be the end of our marriage...salvation is personal its not found in any house called a church ..we as Christians followers of Christ.we are the church of Christ seriously speaking even we staying in taifa Burkina don't go there but people come all the way from takoradi and the likes and come to seek for miracles but when their pockets get drained by untruthful prophecies and akwankyer3.... hmmmm today Christians don't wanna pray don't wanna fast don't wanna read the word and don't wanna use our brains to work how would we go get personal miracles, signs and wonders, Jesus is still alive in us and he still doing correct and great things... let us pass through the right channel to experience the miracles we want

I'm a bit disappointed in the presenter. He should have carried out some investigation and come out with some credible evidence before airing this whole thing. It's too hasty of him and I wonder why he would as well involve the chiefs and not the police. Why such a caption at all if you first haven't had a convincing evidence. With this out in public domain already, you are going to make the investigation somehow more difficult if not impossible.
